

Interim Human Resources Director

Lori Steward

Lori Steward was appointed Interim Human Resources Director in August 2014. As the Interim Human Resources Director, she is responsible for all aspects of Human Resources including Employee Benefits, Wellness, Recruitment, Civil Service Testing, Affirmative Action, Equal Employment Opportunity, Classification & Compensation, Employee Relations, Municipal Integrity, and Employee Development & Training.

Ms. Steward joined the City of San Antonio in September 2013 as Deputy Human Resources Director working with Police and Fire Collective Bargaining issues along with Human Resources Department operational oversight. Prior to joining the City of San Antonio, she worked 29 years for the City of Phoenix, Arizona in increasingly responsible Human Resources positions including Human Resources Officer, Human Resources Supervisor, Deputy Human Resources Director, and Labor Relations Administrator.

Education

- Master of Administration, Northern Arizona University
- Bachelor of Business Administration, University of Arizona
- Certified Professional in Human Resources, International Public Management Association - HR

Professional Memberships and Community Involvement

- International Public Management Association - HR
- National Public Employer Labor Relations Association
- Texas Municipal Human Resources Association

Personal

Ms. Steward is a native of Arizona. She and her husband Don live in San Antonio with a Pembroke Welsh Corgi and four cats.